

7th Annual Meeting of the Minds Symposium

Epilepsy

STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY NEUROSCIENCES INSTITUTE

SESSION TOPICS

- The Endocannabinoid System, Cannabidiol (CBD) and Epilepsy
- Clinical Experience in Treating Epilepsy with New York State Medical Marijuana
- Stimulation for Functional Brain Disorders: Current Trends and Emerging Indications
- Sphingolipid Signaling, Hippocampal Neurogenesis and Epilepsy
- Neurogenesis: A Biomarker for Epilepsy?

Friday, October 14

8 am to 1 pm

Charles B. Wang Center, Stony Brook University

KEYNOTE

The Genetic Borderland of Epilepsy: A Novel Gene Mechanism Linking Epilepsy, Migraine and Sudden Death

Jeffrey Noebels, MD, PhD

Cullen Trust for Health Care Endowed Chair in Neurogenetics; Professor of Neurology, Neurosciences, and Molecular and Human Genetics; Director, Developmental Neurogenetics; Vice Chair of Research, Neurology Department, Baylor College of Medicine

Open to physicians and other healthcare professionals, researchers, students and anyone with an interest in epilepsy.

Free. Registration required. Breakfast provided.

Discussion and audience Q&A after presentations, followed by a poster session.

Register by October 7 at:
stonybrookmedicine.edu/meetingoftheminds

Stony Brook
Neurosciences Institute